procedure. It is considered necessary to give legal sanction to payments that have to be made in the case of deposits, when these deposits are demanded by the legal representatives of depositors in cases where no nominees have been appointed by them and in the case of minors when payments have to be made to them on the receipt granted by them and in the case of lunatics either when demanded by proper persons or by committees appointed for the protection of minors and also in the case of married women. The present practice is considered insufficient and unsatisfactory and affords no protection to persons making these payments. It is, therefore, considered necessary to enact legislation for the purpose of empowering payments of this character. I therefore move this Bill for the consideration of the House.

TITLE OF THE BILL.

Secretary: The title of the Bill shall be "The Travancore Government Savings Bank Bill."

Mr. K. A. Raman Pillai: I want to make one or two observations. Probably my suggestions may be considered if the Bill is referred to the Select Committee. One or two clauses appear so flagrant that I am compelled to make the following observations.

President: This is a matter which can be corrected in the Select Committee.

Mr. K. A. Raman Pillai: Yes, Sir. Then I do not pursue the matter now.

Mr. N. Ramakrishna Pillai: I beg to move that the Bill be referred to a Committee composed of the following members :—
